SABI SAND ENTRY FEE AND CONSERVATION CONTRIBUTION INITIATIVE:

Entrance into the Sabi Sand Reserve is charged per vehicle and per person. A new conservation Project is being launched in the Sabi Sand Wildtuin across all lodges. It is called the Guest Conservation Contribution Initiative. A conservation fee will be added to our guests' accommodation invoice at an additional cost per person, per nights. The funds accumulated by the lodge, will then be transferred into the Sabi Sand Nature conservation Fund at the end of each month. The funds will be used to support the on-going Sabi Sand anti-poaching projects, as well as to support neighbour relations and ecological initiatives.

WHAT TO TAKE: Comfortable walking shoes, sun hat, sunglasses, sun block, cameral and neutral clothing, swimming costume, warm jackets are essential in winter (May – October). Recommend consulting your GP regarding malaria prophylaxis.

DISTANCES: Johannesburg to Djuma ± six hours (± 500km). Nelspruit to Djuma ± three hours (± 250km).
