SABI SAND ENTRY FEE AND CONSERVATION CONTRIBUTION INITIATIVE:

Entrance into the Sabi Sand Reserve is charged per vehicle and per person. The Sabi Sand Wildtuin has a conservation programme called the Guest Conservation Contribution Initiative. A conservation fee will be added to our guests' accommodation invoice at an additional cost per person, per night. The funds accumulated by the lodge, will then be transferred into the Sabi Sand Nature conservation Fund at the end of each month. The funds are used to support the on-going Sabi Sand anti-poaching programmes as well as to support other ecological initiatives and projects within the neighbouring communities.

WHAT TO TAKE: Comfortable walking shoes, sun hat, sunglasses, sun block, camera and neutral clothing, swimming costume, warm jackets are essential in winter (May – September). Recommend consulting your GP regarding malaria prophylaxis.

DISTANCES: Johannesburg to Djuma ± six hours (± 500km). Nelspruit to Djuma ± three hours (± 250km).
