

Palago

A safari adventure at its best

Galago Lodge, situated at the prestigious Djuma Private Game Reserve in the heart of Sabi Sand, presents an African safari in luxury and style. This 4-star luxurious bush lodge fuses African culture with modern amenities to give you an authentic safari experience.

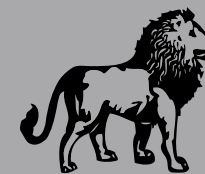

Galago Lodge offers a world-class safari adventure surrounded by majestic African sunsets, picturesque bushveld and the Big 5. All of which can be enjoyed while sitting on a deck or patio in your very own, private camp. If comfort is what you demand without unnecessary extras, the self-catering Galago Lodge will exceed your expectations.

Savour the bush in air-conditioned style that mixes contemporary and classic African elegance with an unforgettable African adventure. Enjoy the bush at your own pace with morning or evening game drives and bush walks before retiring in style.

The majestic location of Galago Lodge is exceeded only by its luxury and affordability for as little as R9,500, Galago Lodge can easily house groups of 10. It's like having your own game farm, without the hassle.

At Galago Lodge, there's no such thing as roughing it. All you can expect is the freedom to tailor-make your own bushveld encounter without compromising on comfort or luxury. Galago Lodge promises a sophisticated, memorable bushveld encounter.
